

MEDIA RELEASE

CELEBRATE DR. SEUSS'S BIRTHDAY AT THE LIBRARY

SANTA BARBARA, CA – 2/21/2012 You would not, could not, want to miss, a celebration as special as this! The Junior League of Santa Barbara and the Santa Barbara Public Library invite families to a party for Dr. Seuss on Saturday, March 3rd from 10:30am-11:30am in the Faulkner Gallery at the Central Branch of Santa Barbara Public Library, 40 E. Anapamu Street.

There will be a special Dr. Seuss story time, followed by a craft-making activity for children of all ages. For more information call the Children's desk at 805-564-5603.

"Dr. Seuss," whose real name was Theodor Seuss Geisel, was born March 2, 1904.

Visit the library system's web site www.sbplibrary.org to find out about other children's programs at the library. All library programs are free and open to the public.
